Chicago, IL - Spanish Coalition for Housing (SCH) is hosting their Annual Fall Fundraiser, Making Dreams Come True, on October 17th at Venue West (www.sc4housing.events). This past year, SCH served over 5,500 households in the Chicagoland region through housing counseling, financial education, and advocacy by connecting low-to-moderate income households to resources that create housing stability, homeownership, and economic mobility. Making Dreams Come True celebrates the success of clients, staff, and peers, and raises funding to support SCH's work and mission throughout the new year.

SCH looks forward to hosting more than 150 individuals made up of their partners, donors, and community leaders. Three stories highlighting successful clients will be featured during the event, with clients in attendance to celebrate their accomplishments. The night will feature a curated menu of hors d'oeuvres, desserts and an open bar. The program will showcase a wine pull and silent auction featuring stays at luxury hotels in Chicago, tickets to major sporting events, and theaters across Chicago.

Spanish Coalition for Housing will also be awarding the 2024 Building Communities Together Award to Chancellor Juan Salgado of City Colleges of Chicago. The chancellor is a longtime supporter of SCH and plays an integral role in collaborations throughout the region. In July, the Chancellor served as a Keynote Speaker at the Spanish Coalition for Housing and Old National Bank Summit, Racial and Economic Housing Equity: Solutions Through Collaboration. Chancellor Salgado utilized the time to discuss the importance of affordable student housing and loan forgiveness, two areas where his administration has made major strides.

Housing Counselor, Jeanette Rodriguez poses with guests of Making Dreams Come True, October 2023.
